OFFICE OF THE PRINCIPAL, AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, HEBBAL, BANGALORE.

Notification dated 1st April 1951.

Applications are invited from candidates seeking admission to the First Yesr B.Sc. (Agriculture) Class of the Agricultural College, Hebbal.

2 The Agricultural College is intended for imparting scientific and practical training to those who intend to make agriculture their profession and provides for a course of instruction and training in practical agriculture on scientific lines, together with the teaching of the fundamental sciences allied to agriculture.

3 The course leading up to the degree of B.Sc. in Agriculture which will be awarded by the University of Mysore extends over 3 years and at the end of each year an examination will be conducted by the University.

It is proposed to admit about 48 students during the year 1951-52.

4 (a) Candidates for admission must be preferably Mysoreans by birth or domicile.

They must have passed the Intermediate Examination of the Mysore University with Chemistry and any two Physical or Natural Science subjects as optionals; or any Examination accepted as equivalent by the University of Mysore; or must have passed the S.S.L.C. (E.C. & P.S.) Examination with Mathematics and Science as optional subjects and also possess the Diploma in Agriculture (L.Ag.)

(b) Candidates for admission must not be less than 18 years of age on the 1st January 1951.

5 Applications for admission should reach the Principal, Agricultural College, Hebbal, Bangalore, not later than the 31st May 1951.

Every application should be accompanied by the following certificates:—

(i) A certified statement of marks which shall not be returned obtained at the Intermediate Examination or at the Degree Examination as the case may be.

(ii) A migration certificate in the case of candidate coming from another University.

(iii) A medical certificate of physical fitness from a Medical Officer not below the rank of an Assistant Surgeon, Class I.

6 No notice will be taken of applications which are received after the prescribed date or which are incomplete, nor can any correspondence be entered into concerning them.

7 The list of candidates provisionally selected will be published on the notice board of the College and every candidate should make his own arrangements to get information regarding his selection. Selected candidates should appear before the Principal on a date fixed by him for interview and if they are found fit they will be admitted. Candidates should pay within a week after their final selection the Admission fee of Re. 1–0–0, Sports and Association fee of Rs. 4–0–0 each, and the first instalment of tuition fee. Any selected candidate who fails either to appear at the interview or to pay the fees as above will forfeit his claim to admission. Vacancies, if any, will be filled from amongst the remaining applications.

8 The tuition fee is Rs. 120 per year for Mysoreans and is payable in eight equal instalments, the first on admission and the rest in the subsequent months. The tuition fee for non-Mysoreans is Rs. 1,000 per annum.

9 The term is expected to commence on the 18th June 1951.

There will be compulsory tours for instruction during the College course. The tour expenses will have to be borne by students themselves.

10 A Hostel is attached to the College, which provides boarding and lodging for the students and the expenses are expected not to exceed Rs. 50 a month. Residence in the Hostel is compulsory.

11 Each student is required to provide himself with necessary books and instruments.

12 Students should adhere to the dress regulations prescribed by the College while attending practical classes.

13 Copies of the prescribed application form can be had from the office of the Principal, Agricultural College, Hebbal, Bangalore. Every application for admission to the College shall be accompanied by a fee of Re. 1 which should be remitted under the head "XXIX. 2. Definition of Domicile: A student may be considered a Mysorean if he has been in continuous residence in Mysore, for a period of 5 years or more with the intention of making it his permanent home or if his father is or was a Mysorean.

Explanation: The domicile of a child irrespective of the place of birth follows the domicile of the father, just as in the case of all others who are legally dependent on their guardians. By reason of an accident of the birth of the child in Mysore, he cannot be classed as a Mysorean, if at that time the parent had no Mysore domicile.

A certificate by a Gazetted Officer should be enclosed in case of domiciled candidate seeking admission.

Notification dated 1st April 1951.

The First Year Class of the Mysore Agricultural School at Hebbal, Bangalore, will commence the 1951-52 session on Wednesday the 20th June 1951.

The purpose of the School is to train students in modern scientific methods. In the selection of students, preference will be given to those whose parents own lands in Mysore and are engaged in its cultivation. The minimum qualification required for admission is a pass in Mysore S.S.L.C. Examination, E.P.S. Standard of this pass being accepted. Preference will be given to the students who have passed the S.S.L.C. Examination with Mathematics, Science and Agriculture, as optional subjects over all other students who passed this examination with Arts subjects such as History, Geography, Logic, Hindi, Fine Arts, etc. The students are required to take part in all Farm Work. The course extends over three years. The first and second years will be spent on the Hebbal Farm and a portion of the third year on the Visvesvaraya Canal Farm, Mandya, to give them a thorough knowledge of running a farm successfully. The successful candidate at the end of the third year will be given the Diploma of Licentiateship in Agriculture (L.Ag.).

No tuition fee is charged from Mysoreans, but non-Mysoreans will have to pay at Rs. 50 per annum. All the final year students have to pay an examination fee of Rs. 15 each. Medical attendance is free. No rent is charged for rooms and furniture. Government grants a few Scholarships.

Students must, soon after their arrival, deposit Rs. 10 as "Caution Money", Rs. 10 as Sports Fee and Rs. 46 as Hostel Advance.

Applications for admission should be sent to the Principal, Mysore Agricultural School, Hebbal, Bangalore, in the prescribed form, which can be obtained from him. The application form should be filled by the candidate himself in his own handwriting and supported by certificates as required in the application form. It should reach the Principal on or before the 10th June 1951, along with the application fee of one rupee which is not refundable.

All candidates are required to interview the Principal before they are admitted to the School. The date of the interview will be notified in due course.

As this School is a residential institution it is compulsory for all candidates to live in the Hostel, which caters for both vegetarians and non-vegetarians separately. All students live in common at the Hostel under the control of the Warden. The Hostel is run and managed entirely by students themselves.

M. MALLARAJ URS,
Principal.
